Dear Parents and Carers

Year 9 Languages trip – Languages and cultures of the Caribbean, King’s College University – Thursday 17 March at 09.00.

As you may know, your child has been selected to participate in our Languages and Cultures of the Caribbean workshop at King’s College University. The aim of the day is to visit the Courtauld Gallery, Somerset House, where we will be looking at Caribbean landscapes painted by Pissaro. After, your child will take part in the Languages and Cultures of the Caribbean workshop delivered by undergraduates at King’s College. The workshop has been designed in collaboration with Dr. Catherine Boyle and Professor Elisa Sampson Vera Tudela.

We will be leaving school on Thursday 17 March at 09.00 and we will be back approximately by 16.00. Travel costs have been covered. King’s College will provide snacks throughout the day, however, we do recommend your child brings a packed lunch and a bottle of water. If your child is eligible for free school meals, we will provide a packed lunch. We expect students to be dressed in school uniform.

Please could you return the permission slip below confirming your child’s participation. Feel free to e-mail me if you have any queries.

Yours sincerely
