Dear Parents and Carers

Jez Butterworth's Jerusalem

We have managed to secure a booking of 65 tickets for the revival of Jez Butterworth's Jerusalem for our Year 12 A level Literature students on Wednesday 6 July. This is an incredible opportunity to see some of the original cast perform this iconic play.

We are studying the play in preparation for one of the student's coursework pieces. Watching the acclaimed adaptation of this play, starring the award-winning Mark Rylance, is an integral part of their learning of the text and is the only opportunity for them to see an actual production. The play will begin at 13:30. If students have Bs in the morning they will meet us at the Apollo Theatre at 13:00. Those in school will leave at 11:15 to catch the train to Charing Cross. The play has a running time of 3 hours generally. But please note that this has not been confirmed by the Apollo Theatre at this time.

Children need to bring their own food and to eat before the performance. If your child is entitled to free school meals a packed lunch will be provided.

The cost of the ticket is £25.00. Please pay via Bromcom. Travel is being organised by the school free of charge. If your young person wishes to travel back from the theatre independently, they must have written permission beforehand and will need to pay for this themselves. The appropriate box must be ticked when the form is handed in.

Whilst this trip is not a requirement of the curriculum, it will be an invaluable experience and greatly enhance students' study of the text. Please do let me know if the price of the ticket will be a significant issue. Arrangements can be made.

Please return the permission slip to me by Friday 13 May 2022. Please be aware that paying on Bromcom is the best way to secure your ticket.

Thank you,
