Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of their mock reflection, students have been issued with a mock reflection booklet. This is for them to record key actions for each of their subjects. Their tutors will be checking that the booklets are complete in tutor time on Wednesday 14 January.

As a parent or carer, you can also ask your child to look over the booklet. You might want to ask them:

- When are they planning to do each target? They should be aiming to complete most actions in January.
- What does this target mean you have to do? This is to check that they understand the target. If they are unclear, please direct them back to their subject teacher in the first instance.
- If the target relates to a specific piece of work, can they show you the completed work? Even if you are not a specialist in this area, it can still be helpful to see the actual work they have completed!

A copy of the mock reflection booklet can be found on the school website, here:

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask your child's subject teacher, or Mr Wright, Ms Ferrari-Jones, Ms Odd or me.

Kind regards,
