Dear Parents and Carers

I am writing to you regarding an exciting Religious Education visit to Mansfield College, Oxford University. This will take place on Thursday, 15 June 2017.

As part of our program to support pathways for our Most Able learners in Religious Education we plan to visit Mansfield College, Oxford University for a Theology taster day in order to show your child a possible pathway into choosing Religious Education as an option at A level and GCSE.

We will meet in the Canteen at 8:30 am. Then we will travel by public transport to Paddington. From Paddington we will travel by train to Oxford. We should arrive in Oxford from 11:00 am. There students will have a tour of the college and study in a Theology lecture. The College will provide refreshments and Lunch. After the lecture and lunch we will take the students punting down the Thames. From 3:00 - 3:30 pm we will make our way to Oxford station, take the train back to Paddington, London. We aim to arrive at Thomas Tallis School for 5:30 - 6:00 pm. We will expect students to make their own way home from school.

Students must wear full Thomas Tallis uniform.

Students will be fully responsible for any money or personal belongings such as mobile phones etc, brought with them. Students are welcome to bring snacks but refreshments and Lunch will be catered by Mansfield College. Transport tickets are already organised.

There are 30 places so it is on a first come first served basis.

The cost of the trip is £15.00. This pays for the train ticket and the punting. This should be paid via the Thomas Tallis WisePay account by Friday, 28 April 2017. Just to remind you this is first come first serve so if all 30 places are taken then we will stop the Wise Pay account earlier.

Please can you fill in the details below if you wish to attend and return this to your Religious Education Teacher?

If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me on rchoudhury@thomastallis.org.uk

Yours sincerely
